

T3 Webinar

Regional ITS Architecture

Best Practices/Success Stories

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration

July 30, 2014

Architecture Use & Maintenance: Introduction

- ❑ What you can learn from the Webinar
- ❑ Effective Use & Maintenance of the Architecture
- ❑ Realize full benefits of the Architecture
- ❑ The Architecture is dynamic/living
- ❑ Best Practices/Success stories by your Peers, representing 4 entities
- ❑ The National Architecture Team is here to help

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Speakers: ITS Architecture Use & Maintenance

Kingsley Azubike, P.E., PTOE, Transportation Specialist, Office of Operations, FHWA HQ, (Government Task Manager: National Architecture Team)

Susan S. Walker, P.E., Project Manager, Iteris (National Architecture Team)

Elise Kapphahn, P.E., ITS Engineer, Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT)

Tom Bruff, Manager – Plan/Policy Development Group, Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG)

Charles Remkes, P.E., Transportation Engineer, New Mexico Department of Transportation (NMDOT)

Nathan Masek, AICP, Senior Transportation Planner V, Mid-Region Council of Governments of New Mexico

ITS Architecture Resources

- ❑ DOT's Professional Capacity Building (PCB):
www.pcb.its.dot.gov (a one-stop shop for training resources)
 - ❑ CITE Courses
 - ❑ ePrimer
 - ❑ T3 Archives like this
 - ❑ Connected Vehicle Basics
- ❑ ITS Architecture website:
<http://www.its.dot.gov/arch/index.htm>
- ❑ ITS Deployment Team:
http://www.ops.fhwa.dot.gov/int_its_deployment/index.htm
- ❑ Your FHWA Division Office